UCSB COMMUNITY LIVING STANDARDS

UCSB is a community of people from diverse racial, ethnic, and class backgrounds, national origins, religious, and political beliefs, physical abilities, and sexual orientations. The Housing & Residential Services staff is committed to celebrating the rich diversity of people who live in our residence halls. All of our activities, programs, and everyday interactions are enriched by our acceptance of one another, and the knowledge we gain when we learn form each other in an atmosphere of positive engagement and mutual respect.

We strongly believe that one’s actions demonstrate one’s commitment to respecting differences. Accordingly, we are fully responsible for our behavior and accountable for our actions. It is important that we each take responsibility for our awareness of racism, sexism, homophobia, and other forms of oppression. We are guided by the principle that understanding and celebrating diversity enriches and empowers the lives of all people.

Everybody who chooses to live in or visit our residential communities must understand that we will not tolerate any form of bigotry, threats, intimidation, violence or other forms of harassment against any member of our community. In the same manner, we will not accept ignorance, humor, anger, alcohol or substance abuse as an excuse, reason, or rationale for such behavior. The disciplinary action that will follow such behavior may include, but is not limited to, immediate removal from the Residence Halls, exclusion form the activities of UCSB, and/or legal prosecution.

All of us who work, live and study in the UCSB residence halls have chosen to be here and as part of that choice should be committed to the principles of peaceful, productive living which are designed to enable all individuals to expand their personal horizons and reach their full potential.
